I verify that the participant is a paid employee of the Host Organisation named above.

I understand a Vocational Placement is a requirement of the Program and that the Participant wishes to use his/her employment to fulfil this requirement.

The main purpose of this Agreement is to successfully complete the placement component of the Program as determined by the relevant professional bodies (EA) and the Department of Home Affairs.

The following sets out the terms of the Placement and the responsibilities of the Parties to this Agreement.

- 1. The Participant agrees:
 - 1.1 to comply with all reasonable directions of the Host Organisation.
 - 1.2 that the Participant is using their current employment to assist in meeting the requirements of the Program.
 - 1.3 to perform the duties listed in the Placement Program Training Plan document (set out in the annexure) (Placement Program Training Plan) and position description supplied by the host organisation.
 - 1.4 to comply with the Host Organisation's policies, procedures and rules, notified to the Participant, including any policies, procedures and rules relating to confidentiality, access to information, IT use, safety and security.
 - 1.5 if the Participant is an international Participant, provide accurate and all requested information regarding and relevant to the Participant's visa status.
 - 1.6 to comply with the terms of Albright Institute's Privacy Policy, which the Participant has read and understood
- 2. The Host Organisation agrees:
 - 2.1 to provide a letter of employment status indicating the position held within the Host Organisation including hours per week the participant is employed for.
 - 2.2 to provide a copy of the Participant's job description for his/her employment with the Host Organisation
 - 2.3 to allocate a Supervisor to the Participant as a mentor.
 - 2.4 to involve and supervise the Participant in practical work and responsibilities that will enhance skills in the Participant's field of study.
 - 2.5 to advise ALBRIGHT INSTITUTE immediately if it has any concerns or is contemplating terminating the employment, so that the matter can be resolved.
 - 2.6 to request ALBRIGHT INSTITUTE to engage in a joint evaluation of the Participant if the Participant's:
 - (a) performance is unsatisfactory or of any concern to the Host Organisation;
 - (b) interpersonal skills are of concern to the Host Organisation; or
 - (c) health or well-being is of concern to the Host Organisation.
 - 2.7 that adequate policies and procedures are in place pertaining to WHS, fire and evacuation and wellbeing of staff.
 - 2.8 to monitor and record the Participant's attendance and to promptly advise Albright Institute of any unscheduled absence from the workplace.

- 2.9 to monitor and record the Participant's attendance and to promptly advise Albright Institute of any unscheduled absence from the workplace.
- 2.10 to maintain required records and reports and have the Participant's Supervisor complete the Mid- Placement Report, and the assessments requested by Albright Institute at the end of the Placement, including the Training Plan.
- 2.11 to permit the Participant to use all of the Host Organisation's facilities including equipment and software licenses in order to fulfil the duties of the Placement set out in the Training Plan.
- 2.12 to comply with all applicable laws in the conduct of its business, including those relating to workplace health and safety and to the use and operation of its premises and that it will comply with the requirements of the Department of Home Affairs, the Fair Work Ombudsman and all local state or territory requirements concerning employment.
- 2.13 to exercise a duty of care to the Participant as an employee of the Host Organisation.
- 2.14 to be included on the list of Industry Partners displayed on the ALBRIGHT INSTITUTE Professional Placements websites Yes No
- 2.15 to comply with the terms of ALBRIGHT INSTITUTE' Privacy Policy in relation to Participant information.
- 3. Albright Institute agrees:
- 3.1 in co-operation with the Participant, to check the Participant's visa status prior to commencement of the Placement to ensure the Participant is entitled to participate in the Placement.
- 3.2 to provide any information reasonably required by the Host Organisation prior to the commencement of the Placement, provided it has the Participant's consent to do so.
- 4. Each Party agrees that:
- 4.1 if any party breaches a term of this Agreement (defaulting party) and it is not rectified within fourteen (14) days of written notice to all Parties, any Party other than the defaulting Party can terminate this Agreement by notice to the other parties.
- 4.2 if the Participant is an international Participant and fails to hold a valid visa that permits the holder to undertake this Placement in Australia for the duration of the Placement, ALBRIGHT INSTITUTE or the Host Organisation may terminate this Agreement by notice to the other Party and the Participant.
- 4.3 any Party may, on thirty (30) days of written notice, terminate this Agreement.
- 4.4 any variations to this Agreement must be agreed in writing between the Parties.

This agreement is governed by New South Wales law and subject to the jurisdiction of New South Wales courts.
